CONVERSATION

Jesus Taught to Help Others

BASED ON JOHN 13:1-20

Jesus and His disciples were in Jerusalem for the Passover Feast. Jesus loved His disciples very much. He wanted to show them how much He loved them.

That night, Jesus and His disciples ate a meal together, Jesus stood and took off His coat. He wrapped a towel around His waist. He held a basin, which was like a large bowl, and poured water in it. Then Jesus began to wash the disciples' feet. He dried their feet with the towel that was wrapped around His waist. One by one, Jesus washed each disciple's feet.

When Jesus came to Peter, Peter stopped Him and asked, "Are you going to wash my feet, too?"

Jesus replied, "Yes, Peter. I am going to wash your feet."

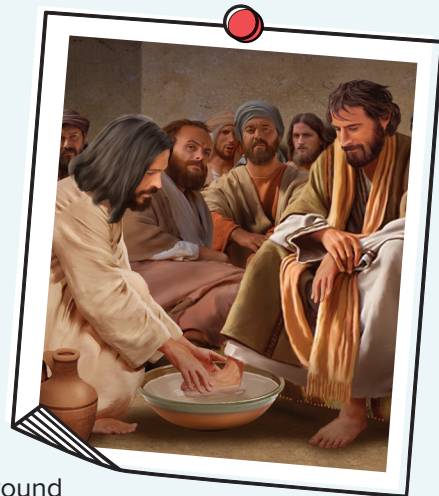

"No," said Peter. "You should not be washing my feet."

Jesus explained that if Peter let Him wash his feet, then Peter would really be Jesus' disciple.

When Jesus finished washing the disciples' feet, He put His coat back on and sat down. He asked His disciples, "Do you understand what I have done for you? I am your Teacher, and I have been kind to you by washing your feet. Now, I want you to follow My example and do kind things for people, also."
